Editorial

JAN/FEB 94

It now seems most unlikely that there will be "war crimes" trials held in Britain after all. The recent decision by Scottish legal authorities not to proceed with charges against a former Lithuanian Police Officer, because of the unreliability of evidence and thus the doubt of obtaining a conviction will we hope persuade the House of Commons to abandon the project.
Since it's inception the "witchhunt" has already cost several millions of pounds, money that would have been put to better use in our National Health Service. Unfortunately, there is still one minority group who are determined to proceed with the project.
Their motivation we suspect, is not for Justice, but for Revenge. I therefore respectfully suggest that the Board of Deputies, and the Israeli government, finance a civil case against those who THEY accuse of war crimes, and leave British taxpayers money to be used for the benefit of the majority!

We are alarmed that the political establishment, under pressure from minority racial and religious groups are considering further legislation to curtail our right to free speech.
This tactic is solely designed to hamper the Nationalist cause.
To our masters, we say "Don't do it". Further restrictions will make Nationalist political activities completely sterile.
This in our view, will lead to an ever increasing trend for Nationalists to go "underground" and be forced to adopt "direct action tactics" against political opponents.
The proposers of any such illegal actions would justify this by firstly pointing out the complete bias of our political system, and secondly, that direct action by Nationalists in Germany has forced the authorities there to end the open door approach to foreign immigrants.
Closer to home, they will be able to point out that the IRA, a terrorist organisation, has through the bullet and the bomb, forced the British government to the negotiating table.
Is this the way of the future?
I sincerely hope not!

The outlook in 1994, for the British people in Ulster, and our kith and kin in South Africa is bleak. Both face betrayal from their own governments, and both will probably need help from outside, and more important, Unity from within, if they are to survive.

Closer to home, the British Nationalist movement also needs to reflect on what it can do to promote Unity from within.
For the past few months there has been some dissent amongst younger, more militant members and supporters of the BNP. Unfortunately their tactics, which have included childish personal attacks on members of the BNP leadership have blanketed some of their very genuine complaints about security within the party organisation. The BNP leadership, have responded, not by talking, but by using the very heavy hand of expulsion. If the BNP is to be a major player in the future of the British people it must like other political parties, be prepared to tolerate both a "right of centre" grouping within, and if necessary a "left of centre" group. Also, in the wake of the "Hepple affair", the leadership, must set up a procedure where allegations of disloyalty can be properly investigated to everybody's satisfaction.
History has shown that expulsions and proscribing of dissidents only leads to "splits", which is detrimental to our cause.

It is our view that it is now time to talk! Our enemies are both numerous and powerful, and will take our combined efforts to dislodge them. Our need for ultimate victory must take precedent over personal dislikes and petty squabbles. The survival of our Race and Nation on this tiny Island of ours, is in our hands alone! Together we can achieve victory, divided we will be defeated!

The League of St George, is willing if required, to act as a mediator.
All discussions will be, and will stay completely confidential.
We cannot afford to lose our fight, we are here if you need us.

Does 1994 = Betrayal?

1994 looks very much like a year in which both the British Nationalist people in Ulster, and their kith and kin in South Africa face surrender to "enemy forces". Never defeated in Combat, but instead beaten by a stab in the back, by their own Governments. Yes! 1994 could be the year of BETRAYAL!

ULSTER

In Britain, John Major, and the Tory government, seem intent on BETRAYING the people of Ulster, and giving away an important, and loyal part of Britain to the Irish Republic.
The Tories claim that this will only happen with the consent of the Ulster people, but who can trust the words of a government that was holding secret negotiations with terrorists of the Marxist-IRA, at the same time that this organisation was murdering and maiming British citizens?
The Irish Government, who are committed to multi-racialism, and can in no way be described as "Nationalist", has also given assurances to the safety of Ulster Loyalists, following any take-over by the Republic. But these promises must be weighed with the fact that the same Irish government has given safe refuge to the Marxist murders of the Provisional IRA for many years.
Sinn Fein, the legalised political wing of the Marxists spare no doubt as to their political aims, from their own publications they state.."..the IRA are a Marxist-Leninist Political Movement, dedicated to a United Ireland modelled on the Socialist Republic of Cuba.."

SOUTH AFRICA

Our kith and kin in South Africa, face the same future of BETRAYAL as the people of Ulster, and by the same betrayer, their own Government.
For over 300 years the White population of South Africa, developed the land from denuded veld, and empty valleys, into a modern industrial state.
But now, faced with increasing financial pressure from the West, and the prospect of a severe cut in profits for the few "Alien fat cats" that control the South African economy, the ruling National Party is set to hand over the country to the Marxist ANC, and the violence, bloodshed, anarchy and destruction, that are the trademarks of Communism.
Let there be no doubt, that like the Provisional IRA, the African National Congress are Marxists.
Whilst the elderly, and almost benign, Nelson Mandella is the public face of the ANC, the real power is held by people like Thabo Mbeki, a long-time member of the South African Communist Party, who learned early his political skills in Russia.

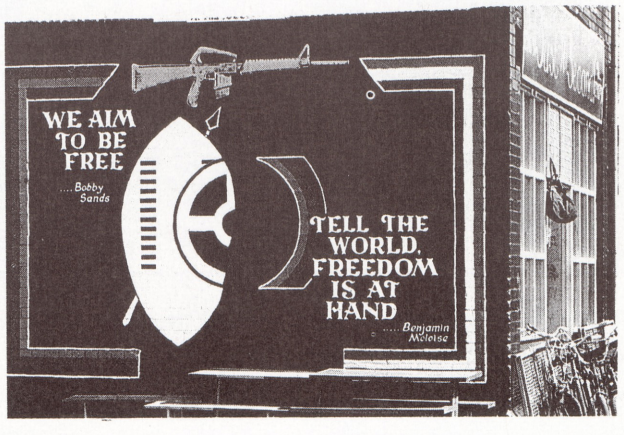
The battlelines have already been clearly defined, with the ANC dominated Transitional Executive Council, who will run the country until April 27th, first insisting that the Zulu homeland of Kwa-Zulu, hand over documents relating to the proposed defence of their homeland after the ANC takeover.
The Zulu King, Zwelithini, refused to comply, and called a "war" council of some 10,000 Zulu warriors, and told them that they would be expected to "fight to the death" in the event of any moves by the ANC to occupy Zulu territory

Meanwhile, at a mass rally held by White Nationalists at Pretoria's "Voortrekker Monument", the leader of South Africa's Conservative Party, Ferdi Hartzenberg, told the thousands of Whites who attended, "we will again pay the price our forefathers did to keep our freedom". Hartzenberg then appealed to the Government to set up a White "Volkstaat" (homeland), and warned that "if the authorities do not want to give us our rightful piece of this land, then we will have to take it for ourselves".

The only real hope of avoiding a bloodbath is the partitioning of the country, with territorial security for both the Whites, and the Zulu's, until then, just like the Ulster Loyalists, they must be prepared to fight for their right to survive.

No Surrender !

Strangely enough, the two Marxist-terrorist groups mentioned in this article, the Provisional IRA and the ANC have established strong links with each other, as shown in this Belfast Wall mural.



Reds Destroy Hess Memorial

A marble memorial stone erected to comemorate the landing in a scottish field, of "peace campaigner" Rudolf Hess on the night of the 10th of May 1941, has been smashed by members of the "Anti-Nazi League".

The memorial, bore the words,..... "This stone marks the spot where brave, heroic Rudolf Hess landed by parachute on the night of the 10th of May 1941, seeking to end the war between Britain and Germany".

It was indeed on a "peace mission" that Hess had single handedly piloted a small plane across the channel, and parachuted out, landing in a field at Floors Farm, Eaglesham, Glasgow.
Hess had brought proposals designed to bring an early end to the war between Britain and Germany.
Instead of accepting or even discussing his proposals, Britain continued at war for another four years.
Hess was imprisoned, and finally died in mysterious circumstances just weeks before he was going to be released after serving 46 years, most of which was spent in solitary confinement.
The memorial was erected with the permission of the landowner, and visited by many British and Foreign visitors, including Wolf Rudiger Hess, the son of Rudolf Hess.
It is believed to have been erected and paid for by an elderly Newcastle man, who has since been the subject of harassment by Police "search squads".

"ANAL" member desecrates the Hess "Peace Memorial". Why no prosecution ??

The destruction of the memorial has been claimed by the Socialist Workers Party "puppet", the Anti-Nazi League, whose West of Scotland organiser, Ameer Anwar of 36b Glasgow St, Kelvinbridge, Glasgow said, " we removed it".
The attack was filmed live by a t.v. crew, and shown on BBC 1, with the faces of those responsible distorted to "protect their identity".

Following this desecration, League Sentinel appeals to ALL Nationalists to take the following action.
1/ Write to the Scottish equivalent of a public prosecutor and demand the arrest of those responsible on the charges of criminal damage. Tell him that you wish to be kept informed of the investigation into this matter. His title and address is.. The Procurator Fiscal, 106, Renfrew Road, Paisley, Scotland.
2/ Then write to the Chief Constable for the area. The Chief Constable, Strathclyde Police, 173, Pitt Street, Glasgow, G2 4JS. Ask him what action he is taking regarding this crime.
Both men, being public officials., are duty bound to reply. Then send us copies of their replies.

Don't leave it! Do it now! Hess died for peace! Now you must fight for justice! Do it!

Lady Birdwood on new 'Race' charge

Lady Birdwood, who is eighty years old, is accused of publishing and distributing 15,000 copies of a booklet, "The Longest Hatred".
This followed a Police raid on her home, in November 1992.
At the committal proceedings, held at Bow Street magistrates court, Lady Birdwood denied the charges, stating that the booklet had in fact been distributed for the past two and half years, and that there was no proof that in all of that time it had stirred up any racial hatred.
The booklet, subtitled "A study in anti-gentilism" questions the numerical accuracy of the Holocaust, and examines the theory that there is a conspiracy to gain and hold the financial control of Britain by certain members of a minority religion.

To aid her case, Lady Birdwood applied for witnesses summons to be served on two Euro-MP's, and a prominent member of the Board of Deputies of British Jews, but in a move which is seen by some as a blatant attempt to impede Lady Birdwood's defence,the application was refused.

No date has yet been set for her trial.

A defence fund has been established, and all donations to this gallant Lady's cause, should be sent direct to:.....

Published 30 months ago, and now claimed to "incite Racial hatred".

Reds Attack War Memorial

Members of the Anti-Nazi League were believed to be responsible for a pathetic attempt to discredit the National Front, by desecrating the Town War Memorial in Chesham, Berks, just hours before the NF were due to lay a wreath in memory of Britain's War Dead.

Vandals, incensed by the NF's growth in the area, sprayed the letters "NF" on both the town's War Memorial, and the local headquarters of the British Legion. Fortunately, local council workmen were able to remove the graffitti before the ceremony took place.
The smear attempt was described as "pathetic" by the NF's Regional Organiser, John Mc Auley, who later had an excellent letter published in the local press condemning the desecration.
Even the local Police Chief, Mervyn Edwards, concluded that "those responsible were out to discredit the National Front".

Later that day, the NF held their annual parade and wreath laying ceremony at the Cenotaph in London.
Members of the "Anti-Nazi League" again tried to disrupt this sacred homage to Britain's War Dead, by throwing bottles and drink cans, but were swiftly dealt with by the Police.
The wreath was laid by the National Front's Deputy Chairman Tom Mundy, who fought for Britain during the last war, and is still fighting for Britain today!

Asian Demo WAS a RIOT !

Owners of property damaged by Asian thugs whose demonstration outside the London Hospital in Whitechapel a few weeks ago, have now been told that they CAN now claim compensation under the Riot (Damages) Act of 1986, as the incident has now been officially recognised as a RIOT.
The Asian demonstrators attacked the Police, one of whom nearly had an ear torn off, and a WPC needed nine stitches to a face wound, and later caused damage to property amounting to several thousands of pounds. Several White shoppers were also badly beaten by the demonstrators.
At the time, the Police arrested 15 of the thugs, and it will now be interesting to see just how many of these will be charged with the very serious offence of Riot.
It will also be interesting to see if the leaders of the Anti-Nazi League, who organised the demonstration will be charged with incitement.

"Racism, Anti-Semitism and Re-Education.

Newcastle Police Officers are being taught about the Hindu religion, in a bid by the local Racial Equality Council, to tackle "racist attitudes and behaviour both inside and outside the force".
Latest figures claim that racial attacks in the area have more than doubled in the last five years, and local Whites living in the Benwell, Scotswood and Fenham areas as being a "major problem".
The North-East has also been the victim of an outbreak of "racist and Anti-Semitic" leaflets published by a group calling itself the, National Socialist United Workers Party.
As the group seems to operate from an address in Lincoln, Nebraska, USA, the local Euro MP Alan Donnelly has promised to raise his concerns on his forthcoming visit to the USA, where he will visit the new Holocaust Museum in Washington.
It is not known who is paying for this trip, or whether or not Mr Donnelly will suggest the building of a similar facility, perhaps in Washington, Tyne & Wear.

More Re-Education.

The Judiciary will spend 1½ days being taught by Asian and Afro-Caribean lecturers "on how to treat black offenders without offending them".
The cost? One Million Pounds!

ANAL Stalls Closed Down.

Following complaints by members of the public, to market inspectors, two stalls operated illegally by the Anti-Nazi League, in Hoxton Street and Wells Street markets, in Hackney, East London, have been closed down by the Police.
ANAL have complained of Police harrassment, and denying free speech.

Birmingham Council Bans Christmas.

Anti-Semitism in Hackney ?

Orthodox Jews, are taking legal action against the London Borough of Hackney for refusing grants to talmudic students. Last year, the council funded some 60 students, but this year they have decided to fund only those who cannot afford the school fee themselves.
The Orthodox "Fuhrer" Rabbi Pinter has accused the council of "discrimination", and other Jews are pointing to the councils recent decision to award some Fourteen thousand pounds to "Blackliners" a local charity which gives support to Blacks who are HIV positive, or have full blown AIDS.

Tougher "Race" Laws Proposed.

The Home Secretary, Michael Howard, pledged that he would reconsider recommendations made by the Jewish Board of Deputies, for tougher "Race Relations" laws.
Mr Howard, met his fellow Jews in London recently.
Tougher "Race Laws" are also the subject of a private members bill to be introduced by the Conservative MP for Finchley, Hartley Booth.
Mr Booth, admitted that the bill was drafted with the co-operation of the Board of Deputies.

Judge says "No" to the National Front.

Former High Court Judge, James Pickles, has claimed that he was invited to join the National Front, but has declined.
Judge Pickles was noted throughout his long career for controversy, and now writes a column for a National newspaper.
In a recent article, he criticizes the "Race Relations Industry" and urges "whites to get off of their knees and look militant blacks in the face and tell them if they don't like it here they should go to another country".

BNP may contest September by-election

The British National Party have confirmed that they are seriously considering contesting the East London parliamentary constituency of Dagenham, when it becomes vacant in September.
In a recent article in the London Evening Standard, the editor of Searchlight magazine, Gerry Gable, confirmed that the BNP could do well in the constituency.

Special Feature Special Feature

As a change to our normal format, League Sentinel is pleased to print the following article, which explores the development of National Socialist Race Theory. The article as well as being informative, will we believe, provoke interesting discussion amongst Nationalists. In line with our policy, the author is not named, but we can reveal that he is a European Academic, currently living in Britain.

THE DEVELOPMENT OF NATIONAL SOCIALIST RACE THEORY

In 1936 an American was invited to Heidelberg University to receive an honorary MD degree. He was the celebrated eugenicist, Harry.H.Laughlin. Despite the much publicised myths of Germany's excesses in the field of eugenics, this event was not so out of character. Indeed, it was a perfectly understandable endorsement of National Soicialist race doctrine.

The fact is, that in the 1930's many countries practised legislation not dissimilar to Germany's.
For example, in America twenty-seven states had compulsory sterilisation measures on their statute books aimed at "sexual perverts" and "diseased and degenerate" persons. California alone sterilized almost ten thousand people in 1935.
This was after the Hereditary Health Law introduced in Germany in 1933.
But before then, 1907, Finland, Sweden, Norway and Iceland had legislation of a similar kind, preventing "undesirables" from procreating.
Eugenics is that part of Genetics devoted to the study and development of improved heredity, of the creation of a better generation. In 1904, Francis Galton defined it after coining the term, as "the science which deals with all influences that improve the inborn qualities of a race; also with those influences that develop them to the utmost advantage".

National Socialist racial theories did not go so far as measures advocated by the English philosopher, Herbert Spencer, who felt that the poor should be left to die out, and sold many thousands of books based on this concept. America's Madison Grant on negroes stated, "They are willing followers who ask only to obey and to further the ideals and wishes of the master race".
How times have changed!
The eugenic ideal was regarded as commendable in that it inspires to improve the human race, and no where was it more embraced than in the United States of America. Not only were sterilisation laws gaining ground but Americans were about to examine their European influx and legislate accordingly.

With regard to to Asian immigration, at the end of the nineteenth century, an official testimony at a Washington hearing stated, "The Chinese are inferior to any race God ever made. I believe the Chinese have no souls, and if they have, they are not worth saving".
Strong stuff for the Great Democracy.

"We all know what the Germans did",is that familiar retort.There is claptrap about breeding "supermen" and blond-haired and blue eyed "ideals". This is the caricature of National Socialist race theorists, but,on enquiry, this is simply not the truth. There were exceptions, however, but they were not truly representative of the essentially dynamic and ever-changing theory of race.
Those exceptions were the advocates of "Nordicism" who, perhaps, played the greatest part in distorting the development of racial theory.
The main culprit was Hans Guenther who rejected the designation "Aryan",so favoured by Hitler, and substituted "Nordic" as a race from which he absurdly proposed that all creativity originated. His exaggerated Nordicism was echoed by Karl Weinlaender who wildly claimed that the Nordic race "is the only race capable of creating a culture" and that it is "a special act of creation". This misrepresentation of National Socialist theory went beyond the absurd when Weinlaender claimed that blond hair acts as a conductor for unseen thought waves, and that Nordic blood promoted rapid improvement when transfused. He believed the transfusion of Jewish blood made patients more sick and sometimes killed them.

Such ranting,of course,did a great disservice to National Socialism and in many people's eyes they mistakenly became identified with authentic government policy. As for Hitler, his contentions on race were no less shocking than similar views held by Anglo-Saxon eugenicists at he time.
Hitler rejected Nordicism insofar that he embraced all European peoples under the designation of "Aryan" and nowhere in Mein Kampf does he give an indication of the physical type he refers to under that term. He admired the writer,Houston Stewart Chamberlain, who suggested that some of the best Germans are brunet or even raven-haired. Alfred Rosenberg had in 1930 pronounced, "Nothing would be more superficial than to measure a man's more accurate measure of worth is conduct".

Guenther went too far when he insisted that racially the nobleman of mixed blood was inferior to a Nordic peasant girl, and that those who display pure Nordic features were superior to those whose hair was brunet, and their eyes hazel or brown,identified as bastards, and dismissed as bastards.
The National Socialists had won power in Germany with promise uniting the people and abolishing class divisions. How then could they accept theories which divided people biologically, and in terms of superiority and inferiority? 95 per cent of Germany would not have met Guenther's requirements, and so there was a reaction. At the 1933 Nuremberg Party Day, Hitler declared,"We do not conclude from a man's physical type his ability, but rather from achievements his race". Guenther's Nordicism was rejected.
By 1938, Ludwig Clauss in his book, "Rasse und Charackter", joined in the reaction: "No one denied that Nordic men occasionally eat,drink and sleep. It only seems doubtful that these characteristics would distinguish them from men of other races". The mockery did the trick with others in Germany pointing out that "many of the men who are universally regarded as the greatest in history, (eg, Socrates, Luther, Goethe ,Michelangelo, and Beethoven) were obviously of mixed race.
Speaking generally ,it is exceptional to find that distinguished men exhibit a pure racial type".
National Socialist race theory was to take on a new life, and its future development had the potential of becoming an inspiration for all of Europe.
The head of the Rassenpolitische Amt of the National Socialist Party said,"We appreciate the fact that those of another race are different from us. Whether that other race is better or worse is not possible to judge. For that would demand that we transcend our own racial limitations for the duration of the verdict and take on a superhuman, even divine,attitude from which alone an "impersonal" verdict would be formed on the value or lack of such of the many living forms of an inexhaustible Nature".

Blond, blue-eyed Nordicism had been consigned to the dustbin of cranky theories but damage had been done.
By 1939 Dr Walter Gross of the Rassenpolitische Amt detected the potential defamatory effects of Guenther's claptrap and declared, "We have often been disturbed by the indiscretion or even stupidity in our own land when, just after we had carefully made clear to some people or other, that we respected and honoured their racialqualities, some wild fool manufactured his own ideas about race, and declared that these same people were racially inferior and stood somewhere below the cow or ass, and by such assertions repelled or offended not only alien peoples in distant lands but even our own neighbours in Europe, many times even friends of National Socialist Germany, bound to us historically and in destiny".

In the latter part of the war, SS Obersturmbannfuehrer, Dr Ludwig Eckstein, gave an indication of how National Socialist race theory was developing as a truly world view.
In a book published by the headquarters of the Reichsfurhrer SS, he indicated, "While supporting our own race,and if necessary fighting against other races to protect its right to existence, we should not overlook the fact that almost all races display something in themselves that is sound and biologically resolved and therefore beautiful, natural and valuable. Each race carries first of all the measure of worth in itself. When once we understand this then we do not foster feelings of inferiority in other's".
Sadly,much was lost in the rubble of German cities.
How would the race theories of the National Socialist developed without the real holocaust of a defeated Germany?
We know a truly European perspective was developing, the volunteer divisions of the Waffen SS bear witness to that fact, and race theories had gone far beyond the absurdities of Guenther and his like.We,as Europeans,have been given an insight.

United States

President Clinton has bowed to pressure from both the "Jewish Lobby" in America, and the State of Israel, and promised to instruct the US Justice Department to re-examine the case of Jonathan Pollard, who was sentenced to life imprisonment for spying against the USA on behalf of Israel.
However, any moves to release Pollard are likely to be strongly opposed by the US Defence dept, who claim that since his imprisonment in 1989, Pollard has continued to leak highly secret defence information from his prison cell. Also, it is feared that on release he will move to Israel, and present a further risk to security.

A Jewish judge in Cincinnati, has ruled that a ban on the K.K.K. from erecting a wooden cross in the city centre, would be a violation of the Klan's free speech. The Klan said that they wanted to put "Christ back into Christmas".

A US court has ruled that the US Department of "Justice" had acted illegally in withholding evidence from the lawyers of John Demjanjuk, that could have prevented his deportation to face trial in Israel. The court ruled that the Department had acted with a "reckless disregard for the truth".

France

The French President, Francois Mitterrand decided not to place a wreath on the grave of War Hero Marshal Petain following protests from Jewish groups. The Marshal has been honoured in this way since 1980, for his heroism at the Battle of Verdun in 1918. During the last war, Petain headed the French Nationalist state of Vichy between 1940 and 1944.

RIOT POLICE SUED

Condon promises action on racism

Howard steps up fight against racists

Stand up for your rights.

British Nationalists are increasingly becoming victims of Police harassment whenever they try to conduct legal, peaceful, political activities such as protest marches, leafleting or paperselling, all forms of political activity which are used regularly by the other main parties, without hindrance from the Police. Now is the time for Nationalists to say "enough is enough", we will not surrender to political censorship, we will not surrender our civil rights to politically inspired harassment, we must now seriously consider tactics used successfully by our political opponents, and SUE THE POLICE!

Mass arrest has become a favourite tactic of the Police, and serves several purposes. One, is to deter Nationalists from attending functions, be they meetings and marches organised as part of a political campaign by their own party, or even showing peaceful opposition to those of a different political opinion. Recent examples of this tactic was the "mass arrests" of young Nationalists hoping to attend a musical concert, and found themselves kept confined in a pub against their will, by the Police. Nationalists gathering to make a peaceful protest against a march organised in support of the IRA, were "mass arrested" and videoed by the Police, and even a group gathering in East London to leaflet an area in which they had just had a local councillor elected, were also detained against their will by the Police.

The Police are employed as public servants to ensure law and order, they are not judges of who has, and who has not, the right to free speech and political expression!

In all of the examples quoted above, the Police could rightfully be accused of "wrongful arrest" and, or, "False imprisonment".

Similarly, whilst under the "Police and Criminal Evidence Act" of 1984 gives the Police the right to "Stop and Search" members of the public if they have "reasonable suspicion" that the suspect has, or is about to, or is likely, to commit an offence, when stopped, you should always cooperate, but ask WHY you have been stopped. If you are refused an answer, or feel that the Police have no reasonable suspicions to stop you going about your lawful business, then there are two courses of action available.

Met Police Boss
Paul Condon.
Public Servant or Political Censor?

One: Make an official complaint of "false arrest" at the local Police Station as soon as you have been allowed to go on your way. If you have been detained in a building, or a Police station or vehicle, and released without charge, then your complaint is "false arrest and unlawful imprisonment". When making the complaint quote the I.D. number of the Police Officer that stopped you. This is normally identified by silver numbers on the Officers shoulder .

The complaint must then be investigated by the Police Complaints Authority.

The Officer who stopped or detained you could be suspended whilst the investigation takes place. This then means that he has to be replaced on

An elderly man from the North-East of England spent his own money on erecting a memorial to peace, on the spot in Scotland where Rudolf Hess landed by parachute on his ill-fated peace mission during the last war. Sadly, this memorial has now been damaged, and the "Anti-Nazi League" have claimed responsibility.
This same group, who are really just "puppets" of the Socialist Workers Party are also believed to be responsible for the desecration of the town War Memorial in Chesham, Berks.
Now, judging by the number of desecrations of gravestones in this country over the past few years, perhaps the Police should look amongst the ranks of ANL for the perpetrators, for they certainly seem to have a penchant for this sort of thing!
Footnote: We have just heard that 35 Jewish gravestones have been damaged in Worms, south-west Germany. Could the "worms" from the ANL have an overseas branch ??

We have heard that Searchliar has been giving "evidence" to the Home Affairs Select sub-committee on Racial Attacks, and once again have attempted to link us with "Target", a Security guard, and a Klansman from the USA, both pieces of "evidence" are of course lies!
Also we are accused of inciting violence!
All this from a magazine that has for 20 years published a "hit list" of Nationalists, and publicly sponsored the riot in Bexley in which 19 Police Officers were injured!
Two other points of interest arose from the hearings.
Firstly, it was strange to note that the Chairman of the Committee, Sir Ivan Lawrence had previously represented Searchliar editor Gerry Gable in court when he was found guilty of theft!
Secondly, Who was the person who tried to serve a writ on Gable during the hearing? Watch this space!

Bargain of the Year? The media seemed to get rather upset over Tory MP Alan Duncan making £50,000 profit out of a property deal involving a former council house purchased from Westminster Council.
Not such a bargain though, for under the previous Tory administration headed by Dame Shirley Porter, the same money could have purchased almost 3 Million Westminster Cemeteries!

Mr Amanullah Khan, leader of the Kashmir Liberation Front was recently arrested in Belgium on alleged terrorism charges. It would appear that Khan is prominent on the "Most Wanted" terrorist list published by Interpol.
Can anybody explain why, when arrested, he was travelling in a car with George Stevenson, Labour MP for Stoke-on-Trent South. ???

SHOULD WE SUE THE POLICE ??

Although out of all of the complaints lodged by the public, only about 3% are upheld, your action will certainly help to deter the Police from exercising "political censorship".
Two: In the case of "mass arrests", seriously consider pooling resources and engaging a solicitor to sue the Police for "wrongful arrest and false imprisonment".
The courts have awarded substantial sums in compensation when they see evidence of Police malpractice.
Similarly, where the Police Legal Department recognise malpractice has occurred, they often offer an "out of court settlement". This could be a good way of raising funds for your favourite party!

RIOT POLICE SUED

METROPOLITAN Police Commissioner Paul Condon is being sued by the Anti-Nazi League over alleged police assaults during Saturday's demonstration in South-East London. The league said it was collecting evidence for action for civil damages. The Metropolitan Police said any writs would be 'vigorously contested'.

The Police will often use the excuse for detaining you as an action designed to "prevent a possible breach of the peace", but if you complain, or sue, then they have to justify why they suspected that if allowed to go about your lawful business, a breach of the peace would occur!
The local Police Officer is often not "anti-Nationalist", but as his career depends on obeying orders he will do as he is told. His orders originate from the Home Office who of course are answerable to the politicians.
In London, the current Metropolitan Police Commissioner Paul Condon, seems to be a very political person. For although politically he should act completely unbiassed, it is a fact that whilst he meets quite regularly with representatives from the Board of Deputies, and, from the Black Community, there is no record of him ever holding meetings with members of the White Nationalist Community.
Remember, you have an absolute right to conduct legitimate political activity.
Members of the Conservative Party, the Liberals and the Labour Party when going to their annual conferences, are not subjected to such harassment, and nor should you!

The Police Commissioner seems happy to meet with representatives of the Black Community like Bernie Grant (above), and also Senior members of the Jewish Community (below) but when will he meet members of the Nationalist Community ?
OR DON'T WE COUNT ??

The president of the Board of Deputies spoke to Metropolitan Police Commissioner Paul Condon this week amid fears of an upsurge in racial violence in the wake of the British National Party's shock election victory in London.

Judge Israel Finestein told the commissioner that the community was perturbed "both as Jews and as British citizens."

LEAGUE NEWS.

Important Notice

It has come to our notice that certain people are suggesting that the publication "Target" is in some way linked to the League of St George.
We would like to put on record that this is not the case.
League Sentinel is the only publication of the League of St George, apart from the occasional members bulletins.
As we understand it, "Target" is published by an independent consortium who publish personal details of those that they consider support the tactics of Searchlight magazine, and it's policy of "exposing" Nationalists.
As a "Comradely" gesture, we, along with other Nationalist organisations agreed to distribute the first issue free of charge to our subscribers. Since then, we have accepted the occasional advertisement as a commercial concern.
There was not, and is not, any intention to issue "Target" as a supplement to Sentinel.
Nationalists wishing to contact "Target" should do so by writing direct to them via, A. Jones. BM Box 4534, London WC1N 3XX. This will save both time, and expense.

BNP Social

The Tower Hamlets branch of the British National Party, invited several members of the League to their very succesfull Yuletide Social. It was nice to see lots of new local faces that have become BNP supporters since the election of Derek Beackon on the Isle of Dogs. Several of the "Islanders" expressed an interest in the European policies of the League, and we hope that in time they will want to learn more.
The use of human seeds taken from aborted foetuses, is not the sort of subject that you would expect to hear being discussed at a BNP Yuletide social, but one such discussion was taking place, and serious points of ethics being put, until a well known Nationalist suggested "so that's where Gerry Gable came from". Oh well back to the bar...

Crusader.

"Crusader" is the magazine of the "English Nationalist Movement".
A bright and cheerful newspaper type format, and is available from BMN-LCRN London.WC1N 3XX, priced 50p plus post.

League Sentinel publication changes

At their next meeting, the League Council will be asked to consider two options regarding the future of Sentinel. One option will to be to increase the price per issue, or the other to publish quarterly, instead of the six issues a year that are currently aimed for but rarely achieved.
The price has remained at four pounds per six issues since its inception, and has seen an increase of an extra four pages at no extra costs. But with both printing and postage costs increasing, we can no longer publish at the current rates. Members and subscribers are asked to submit their views for consideration.

Mosley Dinner.

Several members of the Friends of the League again attended the annual Mosley dinner held in Central London. Speaker after speaker proudly recounted their own personal recollections of Sir Oswald and British Union. Those that had followed Mosley into internment camps, branded "traitors" by a government which had betrayed the British people by forcing them into a war in which Britain had no interest, showed no regrets. In fact they were proud that they had tried to prevent the bloody conflict that followed, and vowed that they would follow the same path for Mosley again. Once again, it was good to see an ever increasing number of young faces, taking their places alongside Blackshirts of old.

 The Commemorative issue of Mosley's "Action" newspaper is still available from Steven Books, of 10, Lincoln Way, Enfield, Middx. Price is 75p inc postage and packing.

"Resistance" the newsletter published by U.S. Comrade, Harold Covington is to cease production for several months, whilst the editor devotes his time to other projects, which may include the forming of a political party, and the writing of a new book.
Mr Covington has asked that no more money or stamps be sent to him, and that all correspondence be kept to a minimum.
